

CANADIAN NATIONAL IRISH DANCE CHAMPIONSHIPS DIGITAL PROGRAM

JANUARY 29 - FEBRUARY 1, 2026 | CALGARY, AB

Letter from the Chairs

Welcome & thanks

On behalf of the Chairs, we are delighted to welcome you to the Canadian National Irish Dance Championships. Thank you for joining us and for being part of this special event celebrating Irish dance across Canada.

A tremendous amount of work, dedication, and passion has gone into bringing CNIDC to life, and we are so grateful to everyone who made this weekend possible. To our dancers and teachers: congratulations on all you have accomplished to reach this stage. The preparation, discipline, and commitment required to compete at this level is extraordinary, and we are honoured to provide a national stage on which to showcase your hard work.

We extend our sincere thanks to our adjudicators and musicians, who have travelled to be with us and who share their expertise, artistry, and time so generously. Your contributions elevate this event and provide invaluable experiences for our dancers. We are deeply grateful to Tourism Calgary for its incredible and generous support. Without this support, an event of this scale would not be possible, and we thank Tourism Calgary for welcoming the Irish dance community and helping make CNIDC a reality. We also wish to thank the Regional Executives of Western and Eastern Canada for their continued leadership and for championing the growth of this event and Irish dance nationwide.

To our volunteers: thank you. From early mornings to late evenings, you are the engine that keeps this championship running smoothly. Your time, energy, and willingness to step in wherever needed make everything possible, and we cannot thank you enough.

This championship is a unique milestone in Canadian Irish dance, only the second time it has been hosted. We are excited to offer Canadian dancers additional opportunities to compete and perform on a national stage, and your support ensures that events like this can continue to grow and thrive.

Thank you for supporting your dancers, for supporting this championship, and for supporting Irish dance in Canada. We wish everyone a wonderful weekend and the very best of luck to all competitors.

With gratitude,
The Chairs
Canadian National Irish Dance Championships

Thank you & gratitude

Meet the experts

Adjudicators

Christopher McGrory, TTCT, TCRG, ADCRG

Christopher was born into a very musical family originally hailing from County Donegal. He began Irish dance lessons at the age of four at the prestigious Cora Cadwell School of Irish Dance in Dublin, Ireland. By the age of seven, he began to learn "the box" from his accordion playing father at home. Christopher demonstrated natural talent in both disciplines and quickly moved up the competitive ranks in both dance and music. At age twelve he won the coveted All Ireland dance title at the Mansion House in Dublin. A few years later he also won the All-Ireland championship on accordion. He toured the US twice during his early teens, both playing accordion and dancing. Little did he realize that he would end up making the US his home in later life.

Joining forces with Celtic Steps in 2016 has been a highlight of his teaching career. This collaboration resulted in Tucson student Eric Crone winning second place at the World Irish Dance Championships in 2022 in Belfast.

Comhghairdeas to all the dancers and teachers participating in this wonderful event.

Nikki MacLoon O'Meara ADCRG

Nikki is from Nenagh Co. Tipperary, and along with her husband Michael, spent years touring as lead dancers with "Lord of Dance".

Both Nikki and Michael run Clann MacLoone O'Meara Academy in Munster. They have guided numerous World Champions, All Ireland Champions, Great Britain, All Scotland and Munster Champions in both solo and team categories.

Nikki would like to wish all dancers, school's & organisers the very best of luck at this wonderful event.

Aidan Mc Loughlin ADCRG

Aidan began his dance journey at the age of six at the Faragher School of Irish Dance, Co. Leitrim. He had a relatively short competitive career dancing his last Connacht Championships in 2000 aged 12. After a break from competition for 10 years, he returned to the competition scene dancing with Scoil Rince Mona Ni Rodaigh, Co. Louth in Senior Mens. With great success in solo competition, he was also part of the senior mixed céilí team who were crowned World Champions in Belfast 2012. Aidan joined the cast of Rhythm of the Dance in 2012 and toured for two years all over the world including Japan, Russia, Europe and North America. On return from tour he qualified as a TCRG in 2014 and set up the Lennon Mc Loughlin School of Irish Dance in Co. Meath. He also teaches on a part time basis with his original tutor, Clare Faragher Mc Morrow, in the Faragher Mc Loughlin School of Irish Dance in Lentrin. Both schools have had great success with multiple World Qualifiers, and medal holders in solos and teams. Aidan qualified as an adjudicator in 2022 and has been invited all over the world to adjudicate at feiseanna. He is looking forward to seeing the incredible talent on display at the Canadian Nationals, and wishes the organisers, dancers, teachers and parents the best wishes for a successful event.

Máire Dixon, ADCRG, BG

Originally from Dublin but now residing in Co Cavan, Ulster, Ireland.

I danced under the tutelage of Marie Walsh and Mary McElroy. I held the position of Office Manager for CLRG in Dublin 2003-2014 and currently run a dancing school in local towns and villages.

Adjudicators

P.J. McCafferty, ADCRG

P.J. McCafferty was born in Cleveland, Ohio and currently lives in Vancouver, Washington. He met his wife, Judy McCafferty, SDCRG, when they were children at the Burke School of Irish Dance. They are married and have three children and seven grandchildren. P.J. and Judy started a dancing school in Ohio. P.J. was a founding member of the Mid-American Region of the IDTANA. He served as Mid-American Regional Director, Oireachtas Chairman and Chairman of the North American Irish Dance Championships. P.J. joined a dancing school Judy started in Arkansas and Oklahoma. He served the IDTANA-Southern Region as Treasurer, then Regional Director. In addition to teaching dancing and judging feiseanna, P.J. had a career as an executive in the pharmacy industry. P.J. wishes Good Luck for Yzanne Noone, Alison Paladini, and Laura Hopper. He wishes Good Luck to every dancer and teacher who will compete this week.

Esther Bromley, ADCRG, BG

I am delighted and honoured to adjudicate The Canadian National 2026. I currently teach Irish dancing, along with my husband in Italy, mainly in Milan, although I do travel to Rome, Turin and Genoa

My beginnings are much less exotic. I was born in London, both my parents having moved there from Dundalk, Co Louth in the early sixties. From there we moved to Corby, Northamptonshire and I was sent along to my Irish dancing classes at the local Irish Club. Little did I know that would lead me to my TCRG, allowing me to teach this beautiful form of dance in a county where very little was known of Irish Dance and then in 2007, my ADCRG which has given me the opportunity to travel the world adjudicating.

I danced for most of my dancing career for Kathleen Clifford, to whom I would like to thank for her guidance, support and tremendous encouragement.

I wish all the competitors, teachers, parents all the best for this event. Finally I would like to thank The Committee for all their hard work in organizing this prestigious event.

Adjudicators

Erin Collins, ADCRG

Erin Collins began Irish dance classes at the age of 6 with the Lenihan School, under the excellent tutelage of Patricia K Lenihan ADCRG. Erin's love of Irish dance and work ethic led her to becoming New England Regional Champion and a 13 time World qualifier. She placed in the Top 5 in New England for 11 years and earned multiple solo and ceili medals throughout the years at Oireachtas Rince na Cruinne, Oireachtas Rince na hEireann, the North American Irish Dance Championships, and the Great Britain Championships. Erin has the best memories of travelling the globe to compete and treasures the lifelong friendships formed during these experiences.

Erin earned her TCRG in 2014 and her ADCRG in 2022. She teaches with the Lenihan School in Connecticut USA and her students have achieved multiple World and NAIDC medals in solo and ceili dancing, All Ireland solo medals, first place New England Regional Champions in solo and ceili, and a first place US National Champion at the first US Nationals held in 2021. The Lenihan School also enjoys a robust performance schedule, dancing up and down the CT shoreline with Irish legends such as Eileen Ivers, Ronan Tynan, The Elders, Cathy Ryan, John Whelan, and Hal Roach.

Erin is delighted to be adjudicating the Canadian National Irish Dance Championships. She wishes every competitor the best of luck and hopes they all make many lifelong memories this weekend.

Edward Searle, ADCRG

Edward was a former World Champion in both solo and team dancing and currently co-owns The Academy based in Columbus OH. The Academy are currently celebrating over 40 World Titles. Edward is also a Real Estate Agent. Edward is excited to be adjudicating the Canadian Nationals!

Meet the experts

Adjudicators

Anne Donovan, ADCRG

I'm thrilled to be judging the inaugural Canadian Nationals and look forward to several days of outstanding dancing. I have been teaching Irish dance since 2008 and judging since 2015. In 2009, I founded Wyoming's first Irish dance school, where dancers earned multiple Oireachtas titles, top NAIDC results, and notable World Championship placements in both solos and teams. Our family now calls Columbus, Ohio home, where three of our four children dance with The Academy (our the youngest eagerly awaiting her turn). But what matters most is this: when you step on stage, I am cheering for you. I hope you dance with confidence, commit to every squeeze and cross, feel the rhythm, and walk off stage knowing you gave your very best. Trust your training, believe in yourself, and be proud of what you put out there.

Charmayne Dulley, ADCRG

Charmayne's Irish dance journey started at the age of 7 with the Simpson Academy in Canberra, Australia. In the years that followed, Charmayne took the opportunity to train at the Butler Fearon O'Connor School in Toronto.

In 2011, after a successful competitive dance career, Charmayne completed her TCRG, founding Mayne Irish Dance back home in Melbourne, Australia (now operating as Pacific Irish Dance). In 2018, she completed her ADCRG exam and has judged throughout Australia and internationally, joining the 2023 World Championships panel in Montreal.

Outside of the school, Charmayne remains committed to supporting and developing the Irish dance community, and has held the roles of Secretary and President of the Victorian branch of AIDA over the years.

Delighted to be invited to adjudicate the Canadian National Championships, Charmayne would like to wish all dancers, teachers and the event team the very best of luck.

Meet the experts

Adjudicators

Jeannie Thornton, ADCRG

Jeannie Thornton, ADCRG, was born in Connecticut and raised in San Diego. Inspired by her mother, a Belfast native, Jeannie began Irish dancing at a young age and quickly excelled under the guidance of Donna Means King, ADCRG, and later Ron Plummer, ADCRG, of Derry. She went on to become a North American and Western U.S. Champion in both solo and ceili dancing. After earning her TCRG certification, Jeannie founded the Clan Rince School of Irish

Dance, which quickly grew to over 200 students and multiple studios. Following the years spent raising her three children, she achieved her ADCRG certification and began adjudicating across the US, Canada, and Mexico. Outside of Irish dance, Jeannie practices reformer Pilates daily and enjoys traveling extensively. She continues to share her love of Irish dance, culture, and history with her students—proudly keeping her family's Irish traditions alive.

Jeannie is looking forward to adjudicating and wishes all the dancers, and teachers the best of luck

Kate O'Connor, ADCRG

Kate O'Connor is a Los Angeles native and the daughter of parents from Ireland. She began Irish dancing at the age of four, joining her siblings in learning the tradition as a way to preserve their Irish heritage. Her love for dance led to a successful competitive career, including multiple Open Championship wins, a Western U.S. Regional Championship title, Top 5 placements at the North American Championships, and qualification for Oireachtas Rince na Cruinne each year.

After retiring from competition, Kate chose to share her passion for Irish dance through teaching. She now runs the O'Connor Kennedy Academy alongside her son, Sean Kennedy, ADCRG, where together they coach dancers to success in both solo and team competitions.

Kate has adjudicated feiseanna around the world and is honored to be judging the Canadian National Championships this weekend. She wishes all dancers, teachers, and organizers a wonderful and successful event.

GOOD LUCK SFH

To all SFH dancers who travelled to Calgary for the Canadian National Irish Dance Championships. Such an amazing opportunity to dance on the big stage. Trust in your training and hard work, and dance your best. We are very proud of you and can't wait to see you shine! Have fun with friends old and new, and make lots of memories. Make Sue proud! Jackie O'Leary Fanning, ADCRG

Jackie O'Leary Fanning ADCRG was born in the beautiful county of Donegal and has been part of the Irish dance world for as long as she can remember, starting at just four years old with the Terry Lafferty School of Dancing, where the spark was truly lit for a lifelong passion. She earned her TCRG in 1993 and advanced to ADCRG status in 1998. As a teacher she guided dancers right to the very top, including her very own World Champion.

Jackie has adjudicated across the globe at the most prestigious championships including the World and All Ireland Championships. In 2013 she moved to Canada and built a new success story establishing Jackie O's Boutique in Grimsby on the Lake. Outside of the business she is happily married to Bernard and the proud mum of Darragh and Mia who keep life full of energy and purpose. Jackie would like to wish every dancer, teacher, and family the very best of luck at the Canadian Nationals 2026. The future of Irish dance in Canada is bright and she is cheering for you every step of the way.

Marnie O'Callaghan-Maple, ADCRG

Marnie O'Callaghan-Maple, originally from Brookline, Massachusetts started dancing at the young age of 4 years old with Maureen Hansen-Keohane where she danced until she entered college. Marnie teaches alongside her husband, Bill where they run the Maple-O'Callaghan Academy of Irish Dance. Marnie enjoys adjudicating and has judged all over the world. She is excited and honored to adjudicate the Canadian National Irish Dance Championships and wishes all the dancers, teachers and organizers the very best for a successful event!

Meet the experts

Adjudicators

Michael Patrick Gallagher, ADCRG

A two-time World Champion and five time All-Ireland Champion, Michael Patrick grew up dancing under the tutelage of Anne Kerr and the famed Aodh Rua School of Irish Dance in Donegal, Ireland. He joined Riverdance in 1996 and within a year was chosen as a lead dancer with the show. He went on to tour with Riverdance for over seven years, touring all over the world. One of the highlights of his career was to perform as a guest artist with Riverdance on the hit show, 'Dancing with the Stars'. After leaving Riverdance he took his TCRG exam and began teaching soon after that. He graduated in 2014 with a Masters in Ethnochoreology from the University of Limerick. Over the years he has co-choreographed shows such as The Rising Step and Mná na hÉireann. He has judged the All-Ireland twice, the Great Britain's, the Scottish Nationals and Irish Nationals. He currently is the director of the Michael Patrick Gallagher School of Irish Dance with classes in Arizona, New Mexico and Wyoming. He is delighted to judge the inaugural Canadian Nationals and wishes all the competitors the very best of luck!

Musicians

Shannon Quinn

Shannon Quinn is a multi-instrumentalist from Halifax, Nova Scotia, and has been on the Irish Dance music scene for the past 18 years. She has also played at multiple North American Oireachtas as well as the Nationals. Shannon is an award-winning recording artist and music educator, as well as a featured artist on the Feis App.

Sean O'Brien

Sean O'Brien is one of the world's leading exponents of Irish dance music. Over a 28 year period Sean has played at feiseanna across the globe and has performed at every major championship including the All Irelands and World Irish Dance Championships.

An accomplished Irish dancer, winning both State and Australian titles, Sean toured worldwide, dancing with Riverdance's Liffey company from 2001 to 2004. Towards the end of this time with the show he worked with the band, playing piano on his final tour in '04.

A classically trained pianist and accordionist, Sean is a professional composer, producer and performer, having worked with a wide variety of musical genres spanning pop, latin funk, musical theatre, tech house and psychedelic trance, to name a few.

Since 2011 Sean has produced over 29 albums of Irish dance music and is co-founder of the Irish dance music app FEIS, along with streaming service FeisTV.

Sean wishes all competitors at this year's event the very best of luck.

Musicians

Cormac O'Sé

Cormac O'Sé was born in Dublin into an Irish dancing family and raised at the heart of Ireland's music, dance, and cultural life. He began studying accordion at age six under renowned Dublin musician Gerry Nulty and quickly developed a deep connection to traditional Irish music, performing in shows, festivals, and workshops throughout Europe and the United States.

Cormac was part of the original televised performance of Riverdance at the 1994 Eurovision Song Contest and spent six years touring internationally with Riverdance – The Show, performing over 2,000 times across four continents. He appears in several Riverdance productions, including Riverdance – The Show and Riverdance at Radio City.

Now based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, Cormac is the director of O'Shea Irish Dance and founder of The Celtic Junction Arts Center, a hub for traditional and acoustic music and dance. He has played for feiseanna across Australia, the United States, and Canada, including major championships, and brings extensive stage and sound experience to every performance.

Luke Sooy

Luke Sooy is a New Jersey based piano accordionist and pianist who plays live music at Feiseanna. He is also a recording musician for the Feis App, where his tracks are used by dancers and teachers worldwide. Luke has a background in competitive Irish dance and is excited to be traveling to Calgary.

Meet the experts

Musicians

Jessica Bell

Jessica Bell, TCRG is a teacher with the Mattierin Irish Dance and an accomplished musician in the competitive Irish dance community. She began playing feiseanna alongside Merv Bell, TCRG at the age of sixteen and was performing at Oireachtas events across North America by eighteen. She has played at various national and international championship events including the 2019 NAIDC, 2021 CNIDC, 2021 U.S. National Championships, and the 2024 NAIDC. Jessica currently sings the anthems live for ORnH and ORnC.

Alongside her performance work, Jessica is closely involved in the organization and presentation of major Irish dance events. She is co-director of Bourdon Creative Inc with Rebecca Bell, ADCRG and James Cadden, overseeing marketing, event communications, and website management for the 2019, 2025, 2026, and 2027 NAIDC. She also serves on the CLRG Oireachtas Committee and designed the new ORnH logo and the most recent ORnC logos for 2025 and 2026.

Merv Bell

Merv danced for 17 years with the Butler Academy in Toronto. He danced in several North American Championships and qualified to dance in the World Irish Dance Championships in Ireland. He was proud to be a member of the Senior Figure Choreography team, which won the North American Championship in New York.

Over the past 35 years & counting, Merv has been playing accordion and piano at Irish dance competitions nationally and internationally, including the World Irish Dance Championships, North American Championships, and Australian National Championships.
